This will be our last newsletter unless someone steps forward to take the role of editor. Laura is willing to meet to assist with your first set up.

Ingersoll Coin Club – November 18 Minutes

Meeting called to order at 7:30 pm by President Chris MacClean. We had 38 people in attendance including vendors Richard MacClean and Steve Hague. We had returning members.

It is major Auction Night. We have 116 items on the block and will be proceeding at a quick rate. Sean Sinclair informed us that he is Ingersoll's Area Director for the ONA and we are currently taking votes for the medal design. Voting can be done online or through the form as part of the Numismatist. <http://www.the-ona.ca/2020/2020MedalDesignCompetition.pdf>

Sadly there has been a number of losses in the Numismatic community in the recent past.

Auction began at 7:33 pm. First 60 items sold with 44 sold and 16 past.

Break called at 8:13 pm

Banquet tickets can be purchased at the front with Vicki Edwards

Memberships can be renewed at the back with Neil McAuley

Meeting resumed at 8:21 pm

Items 61-116 on the block. With 45 items sold and 10 past.

Auction ended at 8:58 pm

Member Draw

We had cash out and clean up.

We were out of hall by 9: 20 pm.
